

The incumbents have a licensed monopoly in almost all areas of the country, including my own. If leasing is not required then the cable company will rapidly become the only ISP - choice will wither and die. A monopoly on cable must NOT be permitted to become a monopoly on Internet.